The source for substantial, informative, and up-to-date biographical essays on 72 of the most notable twentieth-century Latin American women.

Entries cover authors, critics, major works, magazines, genres, and schools and movements of Latin American and Caribbean literature.

The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900–2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors, critics, major works, magazines, genres, schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day. With more than 200 entries written by a team of international contributors, this Encyclopedia successfully covers the popular to the esoteric. The Encyclopedia is an invaluable reference resource for those studying Latin American and/or Caribbean literature as well as being of huge interest to those following Spanish or Portuguese language courses.

This vast three-volume Encyclopedia offers more than 4000 entries on all aspects of the dynamic and exciting contemporary cultures of Latin America and the Caribbean. Its coverage is unparalleled with more than 40 regions discussed and a time-span of 1920 to the present day. "Culture" is broadly defined to include food, sport, religion, television, transport, alongside architecture, dance, film, literature, music and sculpture. The international team of contributors include many who are based in Latin America and the Caribbean making this the most essential, authoritative and authentic Encyclopedia for anyone studying Latin American and Caribbean studies. Key features include: * over 4000 entries ranging from extensive overview entries which provide context for general issues to shorter, factual or biographical pieces * articles followed by bibliographic references which offer a starting point for further research * extensive cross-referencing and thematic and regional contents lists direct users to relevant articles and help map a route through the entries * a comprehensive index provides further guidance.

Blending cultural studies, literary analysis, and political history, this book shows how Elena Garro's life and work expose the impasses inherent to the concept of Mexican modernity. This study explores her critique of Mexican modernity and its apologists, as well as her critique on the nation's crisis of globalization, state power, and violence.

"This thoughtfully crafted . . . insightful and informative [anthology] elucidates an overlooked, essential component of the Latin American literary canon" (Choice). Latin American Women Dramatists sheds much-needed light on the significant contributions made by these pioneering authors during the last half of the twentieth century. Contributors discuss fifteen works of Latin-American playwrights, delineate the artistic lives of women dramatists from countries as diverse as Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Mexico, Puerto Rico, and Venezuela. Looking at these writers and their work from political, historical, and feminist perspectives, this anthology also underscores the problems inherent in writing under repressive governments. "The book highlights the many possibilities of the innovative work of these dramatists, and this will, it is to be hoped, help the editors to achieve one of their other key goals: productions of the plays in English." —Times Literary Supplement, UK

[This book Encounter with Memory] is "authoritative biographical information on Garro" Latin American Women Writers an Encyclopedia by Maria Cludia André @ Eva Paulina Bueno Eds. Routledge, New York and London, 2008 p194 Encounter with Memory..., which resulted in a recollection of events to rebuild a puzzle left by Elena Garro. The valuable information that the book delivers emerged from many intense and enriching conversations between Elena Garro and the critic, Rhina Toruño, in which Garro tells unedited intimate details and surprising events of her life. Dr Mara Garcia, Brigham Young University, Chasqui Journal of the Latin-American Literature .Vol34 # 1, May 2005, 219. "The fascinating biography of a woman who dared to question the government and politics of her time , has been compiled in Toruño's book Encounter with Memory: Elena Garro Recounts her Life Story to Rhina Toruño..." Myra Salcedo of the UTPB Public Information Office OAOA April 10, 2005 7D.

In this expertly crafted, richly detailed guide, Raymond Leslie Williams explores the cultural, political, and historical events that have shaped the Latin American and Caribbean novel since the end of World War II. In addition to works originally composed in English, Williams covers novels written in Spanish, Portuguese, French, Dutch, and Haitian Creole, and traces the profound influence of modernization, revolution, and democratization on the writing of this era. Beginning in 1945, Williams introduces major trends by region, including the Caribbean and U.S. Latino novel, the Mexican and Central American novel, the Andean novel, the Southern Cone novel, and the novel of Brazil. He discusses the rise of the modernist novel in the 1940s, led by Jorge Luis Borges's reaffirmation of the right of invention, and covers the advent of the postmodern generation of the 1990s in Brazil, the Generation of the "Crack" in Mexico, and the McOndo generation in other parts of Latin America. An alphabetical guide offers biographies of authors, coverage of major topics, and brief introductions to individual novels. It also addresses such areas as women's writing, Afro-Latin American writing, and magic realism. The guide's final section includes an annotated bibliography of introductory studies on the Latin American and Caribbean novel, national literary traditions, and the work of individual authors. From early attempts to synthesize postcolonial concerns with modernist aesthetics to the current focus on urban violence and globalization, The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 presents a comprehensive, accessible portrait of a thoroughly diverse and complex branch of world literature.

Una guía esencial para aprender a hablar el lenguaje de la infancia y conectar con la familia. ¿Jugáis en vuestro día a día? ¿Dedicáis tiempo de calidad en familia? ¿Sabéis disfrutar de la rutina? Jugar es divertirse, explorar y emocionarse. Jugar es ser feliz, es conectar con el aquí y el ahora. Sin embargo, no siempre nos acordamos de hacerlo: las prisas, las responsabilidades y el no parar de pensar en el futuro hacen que nos olvidemos de vivir el presente.
